Michael Giordano and Aline Avanessy each bring over a decade of personal injury law experience to their firm. They both worked at large firms for many years prior to establishing their own. They experienced first-hand how large, high volume law firms lack client-focused care and set out to distinguish themselves from the typical approach. With multiple offices across Ontario, including Oshawa we are happy to make the process as comfortable as possible for our clients.

Michael and Aline communicate directly with each client every step of the way. We understand that the litigation process for our clients is a long and unfamiliar road that forces them to constantly revisit a difficult experience. Give us a call to schedule a consultation!

Hours: Monday to Friday 9:00 AM–7:00 PM, Saturday & Sunday Closed
