At the law offices of Bailey & Galyen, we bring 40 years of experience to clients in Carrollton and throughout the state of Texas. We built our successful practice on an unwavering commitment to provide the highest levels of personal service and attention to every client. We know from experience that every legal issue is unique and that every client has individual needs and goals. We'll take the time to get to know you and learn the specific facts and circumstances of your legal challenges. We'll keep you up-to-date on all developments in your case, including your options, so that you can make informed decisions about your future.

We are a true consumer law firm dedicated to providing sound and effective counsel to clients experiencing a broad range of legal challenges from personal injury and social security disability claims to criminal defense, including DWI. We also handle all matters related to divorce and family law, as well as immigration controversies. A number of our attorneys have been board-certified by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization, an indication of our commitment to provide high-quality legal counsel with a focus on personal service and attention.
