At the law offices of Bailey & Galyen, with offices in Dallas and across the state of Texas, we have fought for the rights of personal injury victims for more than 40 years. Over the last four decades, we have recovered hundreds of millions of dollars in compensation for victims of personal injury. We know from experience that every personal injury claim is unique, and that every injured person has individualized needs and goals. We'll take the time to get to know you, and to learn the details of your accident, as well as its impact on your life. Our Dallas Personal Injury Lawyers will carefully address all your legal needs and concerns, so that you can focus on what's important, getting well.

We built our successful practice on a commitment to hard work and open communication. We'll keep you fully informed of all developments in your case, as well as your options and prospects for success, so that you can make educated decisions that protect you and your family.

To schedule a free initial consultation with one of our experienced Dallas Personal Injury Lawyers, contact our offices online or call us at 844-402-2992 to set up an appointment.
