In 2014, the founders of EYWAMEDIA envisioned to form a technology company that listened keenly to the customers and empowered with advanced technology to achieve their goals faster as well as effective.

EYWAMEDIA is a multi-award winning futuristic and independent leader in ""Customer Journey Experience"" technology that enables brands to engage their most potential-loyal customers based on offline-online data across screens (TV, Radio, Cinema, App, Web, Social, Print, Billboards, Stores) to make the best match between products and their preferences.

Relying on the Customer Journey and Experience Management, we started EYWAMEDIA, the best digital marketing agency, with the vision of creating a distributed on-demand platform, across the offline and online world. Our unique platform provided the essential base in understanding customer expectations thus resulting in the enhancement of ROI for marketing and transformation spends by customers.
