We don't believe in limiting a meal to one or two dishes at Flesh & Buns, that's why we have such a variety in our menu. A little self indulgence is what we all need every now and then, including the option to choose a little bit of everything from a menu!

Above all, Flesh & Buns was born from our love of bao, and the desire to find the very best fillings. Food and dining should be interactive, which is why we serve our buns on build-them-yourselfes platters.
