We are Heermans Social Security Disability Law Firm In Memphis, TN and we are disability lawyers who offer personal legal representation, with one on one disability attorney interaction from start to finish.

We are disability lawyers who don't use rotating case managers who don't know your case, and we don't funnel our clients off to secretaries and intake personnel. You have 24/7/365 access to your attorney throughout the process, via email, phone, even text messaging.

We are social security lawyers who focus on the mid-south and we know mid-southerners. We had a win rate in 2019 of 88% which we are proud of. Heermans Disability can help with your claim from the very beginning up until the hearing - or anywhere in between.
