Trekking in Nepal is an exceptional ordeal of life time. The hovering Himalayas which are reachable just by foot have eye catching breaks. Eight of the ten most astounding summits in world lies in Nepal. Furthermore, the Nepal trekking trails leading towards them gives so legitimacy trekking encounters on the planet trekking. The way of life, migrant people groups, tea houses add more flavor to the trek. The profound draw of the Himalayas is another interesting element. The Himalaya is where Hindu god used to do reflection. The cool climate, bright day, sky poop house mountains, ethic local way of life, buddha petition banners and yaks in transit can lift anybody's soul.

The geological variety (from 59 m to 8848 m above ocean level), different atmosphere and geography and presence of changed culture have made Nepal the perfect destination for trekking. This is the motivation behind why consistently in excess of 200,000 visitors visit here for trekking in Nepal. Some even had cited that God has extraordinarily made Nepal for trekking and enterprise.
