Logicstics stands as a leading name among international moving companies, serving as your trusted logistics partner as well. While our offices are based in Philadelphia and NYC, our reach is global. We facilitate smooth relocations from the USA to Europe, the UK, and Canada, with secure storage facilities worldwide. Our diverse services encompass household moving, furniture moving, door-to-door solutions, expert packing, piano moving, car transportation, and multi-modal shipping (sea, road, air, rail). We offer time-critical and temperature-controlled options and excel in industry-specific moving for automotive, aerospace, and high-tech sectors. Logicstics is your ally for supply chain excellence too. Our history of outstanding performance and innovative strategies has earned us a reputation for enhancing the efficiency of your operations. Give us a call and experience the Logicstics difference for your next international move or supply chain enhancement.
