Nepal Holiday Treks and Tours is founded by two brothers, Ramesh Bajgain and Pradip Bajgain in 2016, however, prior to owning their company both of them worked relentlessly in the field of tourism since 15 years. Ramesh and Pradip is an appropriate example of someone who has been greatly affected by the benefits of tourism, having not let life circumstances and hardships come in the way they established Nepal Holiday Treks and Tours with the sole purpose of giving their clients a well-worth experience. Both of them started from the basic in the field, their experience of support staff and trekking guide for many years led them to understand the business thoroughly. At present Ramesh is operating and managing Kathmandu office while Pradip is working from Germany as a liaison officer for Europe.
