If you want to protect your wealth, your family, and even the relationships between family members and friends, having a clear plan for what to do with your estate is one of your best tools.

Don't worry if it seems overwhelming to make an estate plan, keep it updated, and make sure it's properly filed and enforceable. At the Law Office of Mary King P.L., we understand how important it is to have clear plans, and we're ready to support you in throughout the process, from making a plan to making sure it's legal and will be followed.

It's never too soon to start estate planning or to create a will and testament. If you're ready to learn more about your options or to create an estate plan, contact the Law Office of Mary King, P.L., and set up an appointment. We'll be happy to go over your options and talk about your wishes and how we can protect them, together.
