Dating from the 1900s, this chic country house hotel is a 12-minute walk from Grindleford train station, 2.8 miles from Eyam and 6.9 miles from Chatsworth House.

The sleek rooms have contemporary furnishings and decor, and come with flat-screen TVs, and tea and coffee making facilities. Suites add corner or free-standing baths in the en suite bathrooms. All rooms feature Peak District views.

A complimentary breakfast featuring homemade produce is provided, while other dining options include a casual bar serving pub food and a more formal restaurant with garden views. There's also a terrace with seating, plus the landscaped gardens.
