Since 2001, Tom Speaks has been assisting home sellers and buyers across the Phoenix Metro market. He is experienced in all types of transactions including first-time homebuyers, Relocation Services, selling and moving to a larger home (Upsizing). Selling and moving to a smaller home (Downsizing), and building wealth via buying investment property. He is an expert at buying New Construction Homes. He will walk you through the ins and outs of buying and selling to make the process as smooth as possible. He will provide thorough market analysis, and individual property analysis, and will expertly negotiate the offer price and terms. He will manage the transaction from beginning to end. You can count on his 23 years of experience!
